Mr. D.N.Barua, President of GMA while welcoming all participants in debating competition stated that we witnessed today that the educated youth across the North East have a dream and aspiration for a better life for them, which was not there even 20 to 25 years before. Some of the youth who are leaving this region in search of better prospects outside NE Region are doing excellent work. But some of them are lacking the soft skills. The Chief Guest Mr. A K Panchari of Royal Group of Institutions spoke about necessities of Debating Competitions to improve their personalities. He further stated that in view of several educational institutions of national standard coming up recently in Assam, there is no need of students to go outside the state. Sri D N Barua President GMA distributed the Prize Money and Certificates of Participation to the prize winners.
